Living in Spain and Brexit

Upcoming event in ALCALALI

At this event, you will have the opportunity to:

- Hear first-hand from the British Consul and her team the latest information on Brexit and what this means for British nationals living in Spain
- Speak to a Town Hall expert about your padrón
- Clarify how you register as a resident in Spain under current rules
- Speak to local voluntary groups about the support networks that are available for British nationals living in the area

Event details:

Date	Address	Time
18 December 2012	EDIFICIO MULTIUSOS ALCALALI Calle Cipreses 1 Alcalali	2:30 pm

Come along with your specific questions and residency paperwork and you will be able to speak to one of us individually.

BREXPATS IN SPAIN, affiliated with the British in Europe group, will also attend to assist people with legal and financial advice and to update on the current position with their striving to defend the rights of British in Spain.
